The election of the directors is held under the candidates nomination system specified in the Company Act. The matters related to the implementation of the system is subject to the Company Act, Securities and Exchange Act and related laws and regulations. After election, the Company may take out liability insurance for the directors upon resolution of the Board of Directors. The Company may pay remuneration to directors for their implementation of the Company's duties regardless of the operating profit and loss. The Board of Directors is authorized to determine the remuneration for the directors based on their individual involvement in and contribution to the Company's operations without exceeding the highest grade of the pay scale specified in the remuneration standard. If there are earnings, the Company may distribute it to remuneration pursuant to Article 25 of the Article of Incorporation.

Article 17: The Board consists of directors. A Chairman shall be elected among Board members at a Board meeting with more than two-thirds of directors present, and with the consent of more than half of all the directors present at the meeting. The Board of Directors deal with all the matters of the Company pursuant to laws, regulations, Articles of Incorporation and the resolutions or the Shareholders' meeting and Board meeting.

Article 18: The Board meeting shall be called by the Chairman. Except as otherwise specified by the Company Act or the Articles of Incorporation, the resolutions of the Board of Directors shall be adopted by a majority of the present directors at a meeting attended by more than half of all the directors. Any director who is unable to be present at the meeting in person for whatever reasons may appoint another director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf by issuing a proxy. The use of the proxy is subject to related laws and regulations.

For convention of a Board meeting, a notice shall be delivered to each director seven days prior to the commencement of the meeting. However, a Board meeting may be convened at any time in case of emergency.

The aforementioned notice for a Board meeting shall contain the reasons for the convention and may be effected in writing or by fax or e-mail.

The Audit Committee and its members exercise the power of supervision pursuant to the Company Act, Securities and Exchange Act and other laws and regulations.

Article 23: The Company may appoint manager officers. Their appointment, dismissal and remuneration shall be handled in accordance with the requirements of Article 29 of the Company Act.

Chapter 5 Accounting

Article 24: Upon close of each fiscal year, the Board of Directors shall prepare following documents and submit them to the annual shareholders' meeting for ratification pursuant to statutory procedures:

- (1) Business report.
- (2) Financial statements.
- (3) Earnings distribution or loss make-up proposal.

Article 25: If there is a profit in a fiscal year, the Company shall allocate at least 5% of the profit as the remuneration to the employees and no higher than 5% as the remuneration to the directors. However, if the Company has accumulated loss, an amount used to cover the loss shall be set aside first. The employees to which remuneration is paid in shares (treasury or new shares) or cash may include those of the controlled or affiliated companies who meet certain criteria. If there are earnings for a year, the Company shall first pay taxes and make up previous losses, followed by setting aside 10% of the earnings as legal reserve; however, no further provision is needed when legal reserve has accumulated to the same amount as the Company's paid-in capital. A portion of the earnings shall be set aside as special reserve if this is required by the operations of the Company or laws and regulations. The remaining earnings, if any, shall be combined with the undistributed earnings at the beginning of the period, and the Board of Directors shall draft an earnings distribution proposal and submit it to the shareholders' meeting for approval.

Where all or part of the distributable dividends and bonuses are distributed in cash, the Board of Directors is authorized to adopt the distribution with more than two-thirds of the directors present at the meeting and with the consent of more than half of all attending directors, and report the distribution to the shareholders' meeting.

Article 25-1: The Company's dividend policy is adopted in consideration of the current and future development plans, investment environment, funding requirements and domestic and international competition status as well as the interests of the shareholders. The amount of dividends and bonuses allocated to shareholders shall not be less than 20% of the distributable earnings in a given year. Dividends and bonuses may be paid in shares or cash, and cash dividends shall not fall below 20% of total dividends allocated to shareholders.

Article 25-2: If the Company distributes the legal reserve (limited to the portion of the legal reserve which exceeds 25 percent of the paid-in capital may be distributed) and all or part of the capital reserve subject to the Company Act in cash, the Board of Directors is authorized to determine the distribution by a majority of the Directors at a meeting attended by two-thirds or more of the total number of Directors, and then report it to the shareholders' meeting.
